

The Federal Judges Association is a national voluntary organization of United States federal judges, appointed pursuant to Article III of the Constitution, whose mission is to support and enhance the role of its members within a strong, impartial and independent judiciary; to actively build a community of interest among its members; and to cooperate with others to strengthen our system of justice.